

Diocese of South Carolina

PO Box 20127, Charleston, South Carolina 29413-0127
126 Coming Street, Charleston, South Carolina 29403

MEDIA ALERT

MEDIA CONFERENCE INVITATION

- WHO: Bishop Mark Lawrence, Diocese of South Carolina, and Rev. Jim Lewis, Canon to the Ordinary, address the victory over the national Episcopal Church (TEC) and TECSC.
- WHAT: A conference to address the late evening ruling by the SC Circuit Court
- WHERE: The Diocesan House
126 Coming Street, Charleston, SC
- WHEN: 11:00 am
- WHY: An opportunity to learn about the implications of Judge Diane S. Goodstein's ruling in support of The Diocese of South Carolina and its Parish Churches to disassociate from the national church (TEC) to keep their name, property and symbols, ending more than two years of legal shenanigans and untold legal expenses.
Now that the Diocese and its churches are protected from TEC's efforts to seize their assets and church properties, what will the Diocese focus on? What are the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead?
- RSVP: Jan Pringle -- 678-667-6169
Thank you for letting us know if you plan to attend or send someone so we can alert the front desk. Parking is across the street from the Diocesan House. Please call me at the above number or Joy Hunter at 843-696-1757 for any additional information.